

Leverton Place

Kentish Town, NW5

Asking Price £1,750,000

A truly unique end of terrace period house with a contemporary interior located on a picturesque cobbled mews within this ever popular residential enclave. Arranged over three floors, this beautifully designed home seamlessly combines modern finishes with charming period character.

The ground floor features a spacious reception room, a large bedroom with an ensuite shower room, a guest w/c and utility area. There is potential to redesign this space to make an additional nanny flat.

On the first floor, an impressive open-plan living and dining space flows effortlessly into a stylish kitchen with direct access to a generous terrace. The second floor is dedicated to the principal bedroom suite, boasting a luxurious ensuite bathroom and a walk-in wardrobe. A further staircase leads to the third-floor flat roof offering an exceptional private outdoor space with far-reaching views.
