Azzurro Cottage is a delightful two-bedroom cottage, which is nestled in a semi-rural private location, made up of only three properties. Spectacular open views can be enjoyed, having open fields located to the front, side and rear of the dwelling. The property has a private garden to the front, low maintenance yard to the rear and has a deceptively spacious layout, having two reception rooms.

You're welcomed into the property via the kitchen. The kitchen has a range of base units, Belfast sink, granite worksurfaces, gas cooker point, access to the rear yard and wall mounted Baxi gas fired central heating boiler. The dining room has a feature solid fuel working fireplace and useful storage cupboard. An inner hallway provides access to the first floor and then through to the living room. The living room has a solid fuel open fireplace with cast iron surround, being the focal point of the room. The bathroom is located to the rear of the property and includes pedestal wash hand basin, low level WC and bath with shower over.

To the first floor are two double bedrooms, with bedroom one having a fitted wardrobe and bedroom two fitted storage.

Externally to the frontage is the garden being laid to lawn, block paved path with patio and well stocked borders. The rear yard is again block paved with gated entry.

Offered for sale with NO CHAIN, a viewing is highly recommended to appreciate this homes location, views, spacious accommodation and further potential.
