Flash, Buxton, SK17 0SW

This three bedroom detached sandstone cottage is situated in a picturesque, elevated position, offering stunning views of the open countryside and beyond. Nestled within the Peak District, between Leek and Buxton, this home offers stunning walks, is an ideal family home, air BnB, or holiday cottage and is reputed to be the oldest cottage in Flash!

You're welcomed into the property via the hallway with a useful storage cupboard and access to the first floor. Located off the hall is the family bathroom which has a contemporary white suite complete with P-shaped bath, pedestal wash basin, low level WC and is fully tiled.

The sitting room is located at the centre of the property and houses a solid fuel stove which truly is the heart of the home as it controls the heating throughout. Here there are French doors onto the patio area at the front of the property which has stunning views. Next is the dining room which features wooden beams, built in storage and ample room for a large family dining table and chairs.

To the rear of the property is the kitchen which is a wonderfully light and airy space with 2 skylights which flood the room with light. There is door to the side, a contemporary range of units to the base and eye level, induction hob, integral fridge/freezer, dishwasher and washing machine along with an under mount sink and Dekton worktops.

To the first floor are 3 well proportioned bedrooms as well as a WC. Bedrooms 2 and 3 both have built in storage. Externally to the frontage is a flagged patio area, walled and hedged boundary and to the side is a carport with EV charger. The yard to the other side has a stone outhouse, workshop and will house multiple vehicles.

A viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the location, stunning views, versatile layout and quality of the finish.
