Carlow Street, Camden Town, NW1 7BS

£2,000 Per Calendar Month

Set behind an imposing building, which has been transformed from a former Edwardian warehouse into a striking example of 1930s Art Deco architecture; Carlow House provides 85 sensational suites one of which is this large studio apartment arranged around a magnificent four-storey atrium. A perfect example of luxury, loft-style living in a coveted NW1 location, the apartment boasts an outstanding interior with high specification fixtures and fittings throughout. Forming a visually striking spectacle of unique retained architecture, the opulent, four-storey atrium at Carlow House illuminates the building with an abundance of natural light. Created by award-winning international designer Rabih Hage, the grand centrepiece of this building is a vast, communal courtyard with a wonderful variety of charming plants, trees and walkways, and is London's largest winter garden.

Carlow House is situated in a desirable central NW1 location; placed within an eight minute walk of the largest single expanse of Royal Parkland in Central London Regent's Park, residents can appreciate the splendour of open parkland, canalside walks, immaculate gardens and the world-famous attractions at London Zoo moments from their front door. An array of shops, restaurants, bars and fine eateries can be found on neighbouring Camden High Street, Hampstead Road and Albany Street, meanwhile King's Cross Central, the largest urban redevelopment in Europe, sits just 900m from Carlow House in Camden. Daytime Concierge. Furnished. Available from the 17th of August.
