Directions

From Banbury proceed in a northerly direction along the Southam Road (A423) and follow this road for approximately 7 miles before turning right where signposted to Wormleighton. Follow this road for approximately 2 miles travelling through the village of Wormleighton and take the left hand turning signposted to Upper Boddington. Upon entering the village continue until you reach The Plough public house, turn left here into London End and then the first right into The Leys. The property will be found on the right hand side and can be recognised by our "For Sale" board.

Situation

Upper Boddington is located north of Banbury. Within the village there is a public house, local shop and church whilst a more comprehensive range of facilities can be found in Banbury and Daventry. Access for the M40 found at Banbury (Junction 11) and at Gaydon (Junction 12). Upper Boddington Primary School is easily accessible and a bus is provided for Secondary schooling at Chenderit School in Middleton Cheney, both are regarded as Good by OFSTED. Within the village there is also a church, Methodist Chapel and a popular public house, Village Hall with Post Office facilities and activities which include Toddler Group, Boddington Pre-school, dance lessons and various sports. Adjoining the village hall is a large recreational field and a children's play area. Just outside the village is Boddington Reservoir with a sailing club and fishing activities. There are many pretty countryside public footpaths and horse riding trails.
