Ground Floor

Enter into a porch with pitched roof and exposed timbers, flagstone flooring along with exposed stone and brickwork. A part glazed etched door provides access to the spacious entrance hall which also features attractive flagstone flooring. Stairs rise to the first floor, doors lead to the ground floor accommodation and a window provides natural light and views over the gardens. The sitting room has triple aspect windows and exposed ceiling timbers. A large fireplace with beam over and slate hearth with Clearview log burner inset provides a welcoming focal point of the room. Adjacent is a family room with useful fitted cupboards and shelves, further exposed ceiling timbers, wooden floorboards, feature fireplace with Clearview wood burner and multipaned French doors, with access to the southern terrace. At the end of the entrance hall there is a spacious dining room with fitted cupboards and an impressive inglenook fireplace which houses an antique restored Victorian range. Doors lead to a further porch, with pitched roof and access to the side of the property, and through to the kitchen which is fitted with farmhouse kitchen cabinets and drawers with complementing wooden work surfaces over. There is attractive quarry tiled flooring, exposed timbers and an inglenook with Lacanche range cooker inset. A free standing island unit offers further storage and doubles up as a breakfast bar. From the kitchen doors lead to a secondary staircase, and through to an inner hall and cloakroom with WC. The spacious utility room is also accessed from the kitchen and features further quarry tiled flooring, exposed timbers and brick work, Belfast sink, larders and bespoke storage units with space and plumbing for additional appliances.

First Floor

Two staircases provide access to the first floor. The formal main staircase with galleried landing leads to the principal bedroom which features built-in handmade oak wardrobes, exposed timbers within the high ceiling and restored elm wooden flooring and a cast iron fireplace. Adjacent is a spacious bathroom with ceramic flooring, tongue and groove panelling and fitted with a corner jacuzzi bath, attractive wash stand, chrome and glass shower enclosure and chrome heated towel ladder, with a separate WC and wash hand basin opposite. The bedroom adjacent to the bathroom makes an ideal study. At the other end of the landing there is a spacious double bedroom with an en-suite bathroom. This bedroom provides access if required, to the older part of the property, the cross wing via a connecting door. The cross wing was the original 17th century farmhouse and is also accessed from the older staircase from the kitchen. In this wing there are two wooden framed double bedrooms with original oak floors, storage and one with a vanity unit. Off a small landing there is a shower room and separate WC which could make this area self-contained if required.

Outside

The property is approached via a tarmacadam drive which leads to a gravelled parking area and double garage. Within the grounds there are terraces, patios and formal gardens including a fruit and nut orchard, productive kitchen garden and private nature reserve, all of which are connected by a network of mowed paths. The current owners, through conservation management and re-wilding, have created a wonderful nature reserve rich in wildlife and species diversity. This includes a small mature copse, new mixed woodland and scrub, wildflower meadows and a eutrophic pond. There are wonderful views towards Wappenbury Wood in the North and to Shuckburgh Hills in the East. Numerous outbuildings provide workshops and storage, and a well provides an additional independent source of water. There is attractive box bay hedging around the paved patio area which is perfect for outdoor entertaining. The gardens have also been featured and opened for the National Open Gardens Scheme.

Annex

Located along the drive to the farm, is a spacious converted brick coach house which is currently being used as a library, music and film room. This wonderful space could alternatively be used as a self contained annex. Within the vaulted ceiling are oak a-frame beams which complement the oak floor, benefitting from underfloor heating. There is extensive storage including cupboards and fitted shelving along with a fully equipped kitchen and shower room. Double doors lead to a gravelled area.
