Location

Clifton-upon-Dunsmore is the most easterly village in Warwickshire and is located roughly two miles east of Rugby. The village sits on a hill with the Oxford Canal running past at the foot of the hill. The village itself offers a number of small shops, the Bull Inn public house and St Mary's Church. Further amenities are available within Rugby town itself, including shopping, restaurants, bars, and leisure facilities. Primary schooling is available within the village at Clifton-upon-Dunsmore Church of England Primary School, which has an outstanding Ofsted rating, while a selection of state and private secondary schooling is available in Rugby. The village is well positioned for the commuter with easy access to the major motorway and trunk road networks including A5, A14, M1, and M6. Rugby Railway Station also offers a regular and fast service to London Euston which takes just under 50 minutes.

Accommodation

From under an open fronted porch with oak beams and pitch and tiled roof, a beautiful oak door leads into a welcoming entrance hall which has access to a generous loft space, via a pull-down ladder, which offers potential to further extend. Original Parquet wooden flooring leads to the kitchen/breakfast room with vaulted ceiling, two Velux windows and is fitted with a comprehensive range of shaker style units, incorporating numerous cupboards and drawers, with solid oak work surfaces, Belfast sink and built-in cooking appliances to include an electric double oven, five ring gas hob with an extractor over and space for a dishwasher. There is attractive Karndean, wood effect flooring and double doors opening onto the patio. The heart of the home features a spacious reception room that flows seamlessly into the spacious sitting/dining area, thanks to elegant oak sliding doors. This design not only creates an open-plan feel, perfect for family gatherings or entertaining guests, but also allows for privacy when desired. Double doors opening out onto the decking area, with an attractive outdoor seating space. A handy utility room is tucked away off the inner hallway with plenty of space for white goods.

Bedrooms and Bathrooms

A large master bedroom is located to the front aspect which benefits from its own en-suite shower room comprising of a double walk-in shower enclosure with glass screen, rainfall shower and hand held shower attachment, a modern white WC and wash hand basin set into a vanity unit with storage beneath, complemented by attractive tiling to the water sensitive areas. Bedroom two is also complete with an en-suite shower room comprising of a double cubicle, with combination rainfall and handheld shower attachment, glass shower screen and metro style tiling, along with a vanity unit with inset wash hand basin with WC. The beautifully re-fitted family bathroom comprises of a freestanding contemporary bath with floor standing tap with handheld shower attachment, vanity unit with an inset wash hand basin and WC. Bedroom three completes the accommodation and benefits from a vaulted ceiling with Velux window, boasting double height wardrobes along with an access door to en-suite plumbing and loft access door.

Outside

A gravelled driveway to the front of the property provides a generous amount of vehicular parking, for up to four cars, and can also accommodate a caravan. Mature hedging provides privacy and gated access to the side of the property leads to the rear garden. The garden to the rear has been terraced providing various seating areas including raised decking, a paved patio, used for outdoor dining, with a further covered gravelled area currently housing a hot tub with steps down to the main lawn, which benefits from being south facing, with decorative screening for privacy and attractive raised bed and borders planted with an abundance of flowers, herbaceous and perennial plants and shrubs.
