Location

Ansty village has a very strong community presence with a good quality Social Club and a local pub, The Rose and Castle. Located on the banks of a Canal and being part of the land once owned by Lady Godiva, the village is steeped in history. Together with the larger neighbouring villages of Shilton and Brinklow there are local shops within a few minutes drive. The village lies within the borough of Rugby in Warwickshire and is well placed for a number of leisure opportunities in the local vicinity, including Ansty Golf Club, Macdonald Ansty Hall Hotel, Coombe Abbey Country Park, the CBS Arena and the NEC. It is also very well positioned for the commuter, being close to Birmingham & East Midlands airports and Rugby train station. The junction between the M6 and M69 motorways and A46 road being just 1 mile (1.6 km) southwest of the village. Ansty Park, one of UK's leading business technology parks and transport hub, is also just a stone's throw away. A good selection of state funded and independent primary and secondary schooling is available in the nearby city of Coventry.

Ground Floor and Lower Ground

A grand entrance hall with the staircase rising to the first floor and to the lower ground floor. Original features to the sitting room include sash windows and a feature fireplace. The sitting room overlooks the rear garden with views to the canal. The kitchen is fitted with a bespoke shaker style kitchen, with Belfast sink and a Rangemaster cooker. The lower ground floor has an impressive room ideal for a home office, games room or separate living accommodation.

First and Second Floor

Four double bedrooms can be found across two levels and are complete with period features, including sash windows and fireplaces. A recently refitted well-appointed bathroom is fitted with a four piece suite including a bath, separate shower, wash hand basin and WC.

Outside

Externally the property has a lot to offer, a sweeping driveway opens up to parking for several cars. with access to landscaped gardens with mature planting, a bridge over the canal leads you to the 1.21 acre paddock, ideal for a pony with the added benefit of lapsed planning permission for a stable and tack room.
