Located in the heart of this picturesque village, a Grade II listed cottage, dating back to circa 1760, stands as a testament to historical charm and character. Once the village bakery, this unique 3-bedroom semi-detached house offers a truly special living experience spread across varying levels.

Steps lead up from the charming courtyard driveway to a lovely entrance hall. The spacious sitting room featuring a vaulted ceiling and a striking open fire, setting the tone for cosy evenings in. A dedicated study provides the perfect space for remote work or relaxing with a good book. The kitchen has room for appliances but would benefit from updating. There is a bathroom and separate shower room, which is also an en-suite to bedroom one. The three double bedrooms offer peaceful retreats. The property is complete with a single garage and driveway parking, ensuring convenience in this idyllic village setting.

Outside, this cottage boasts a south west rear gardens with a gate from the cottages garden to the recreation ground and easy access to the Half Moon pub. There is parking for several vehicles to the front of the property. The cottage is located very centrally for this charming English village and would benefit from some restoring and improvement to preserve the history for the future.
