Set in the popular village of Moseley this elegant period semi detached home is arranged over 3 floors boasting many original Edwardian features as well as contemporary additions to provide excellent accommodation ideal for a family. Approached via the block paved multi car driveway, inspection reveals the entrance porch which gives way to the spacious entrance hall with wooden flooring throughout and gives access to the cellar area as well as the cloakroom which has a WC and basin in addition to plumbing for a washer/dryer. There are two generous reception rooms, the sitting room with stunning bay window to fore and original fireplace with gas fire inset whilst the dining room has feature wooden flooring and an exit door to the rear terrace. Natural light flooding into the open plan kitchen/ dining/ family room creates a fantastic entertaining space which boasts an excellent range of fitted wall and base units with a centre island with space for a table and a seating area which overlooks the rear garden.

On the first floor, the master bedroom is an excellent size with an impressive bay to fore which benefits an ensuite shower room with walk in shower. There are two further bedrooms, one currently used as a dressing room. The guest bathroom is an elegant space with a traditional white suite.

On the second floor there are three further bedrooms, two of which are double rooms as well as an additional guest bathroom with both a bath and a separate shower.

Outside to the rear the enclosed rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with well stocked flower borders and a large terrace whilst to the fore the front drive provides off road parking for several vehicles and gives way to the side garage.
