Location

Westgate on Sea remains today a stylish and elegant seaside town. It boasts two blue flag beaches, St Mildreds Bay and Westgate Bay a range of beach facilities and of course those stunning Turner sunsets. At the heart of Westgate lies a small parade of independent shops some of which still possess the original Victorian canopied walkway. The Mainline station provides access to London, approximately 1.5 hours travel time and the remaining Thanet towns including fashionable Margate which is less than 2 miles walk along the seafront. Thanet has long been a tourist destination and therefore a variety of recreational facilities are on hand including various water sports, a number of golf courses and stunning coastal and marshland walks. Westwood Cross provides further shopping and leisure opportunities whilst approximately 14 miles distant lays the historic cathedral city of Canterbury.
