Situation

The farm is well located in a particularly attractive and accessible part of North Yorkshire on the periphery of the North York Moors National Park, approximately 0.5 miles south of the village of Charltons and 3 miles southeast of Guisborough.

The market town of Guisborough is easily accessible and provides a full range of shops, services, supermarkets, and leisure facilities. The neighboring coastal villages also offer an array of pubs and restaurants.

Road access is excellent with direct access onto the A171 (Middlesbrough to Whitby Road) to the neighbouring coastal villages (East) and the city of Middlesbrough (West). The East Coast Main Line also provides regular services to Edinburgh, Newcastle and London. The nearest airport is Durham Teesside International Airport with regular domestic and international flights.

The surrounding area is renowned for productive farmland, picturesque countryside, quality sporting and its white sandy beaches along a stunning coastline, attracting a huge number of tourists each year.

Description

Aysdale Gate Farm is a well-equipped and productive grassland unit, extending in total to about 301.38 acres (121.96 ha) with excellent fixed assets including an attractive, traditional stone built, five-bedroom farmhouse, extensive stabling and equestrian facilities, there an excellent range of modern farm buildings, including housing for 200 head of cattle, lambing sheds for 200 ewes and machinery storage facilities.

The Farmhouse

The farmhouse is an attractive and substantial Grade II, three-storey house, built of dressed stone under a pitched slate clad roof. The house provides well-proportioned, bright and spacious accommodation, extending in total to approximately 2,852 sq ft and comprising:

Ground floor: Entrance Hall, kitchen, dining room, living room, playroom, snug, office, and a bathroom.

First floor: Three bedrooms, attic room and a bathroom.

Second floor: Two bedrooms and an ensuite.

The house sits in an elevated position with far reaching views over open countryside with a delightful mature garden and patio area to the rear of the property. The house has the benefits of single detached stone-built garage and a small range of traditional outbuildings (recently re-roofed) adjoin the house to the western elevations and provide scope for conversion to residential use, subject to obtaining the necessary consents.

Farm Buildings

The farm buildings provide spacious and flexible modern livestock housing for 200 head of cattle, indoor lambing facilities for 200 ewes and extensive storage facilities with wide concrete areas benefiting movement around the farmyard.

A former quarry site is located 100m south of the main steading and accessed via a separate track. This area has been partially concreted with two large stacking areas for silage bales and useful machinery storage.

Given the farm's situation on the Middlesbrough to Whitby Road (A171) in an area renowned for tourism, it is considered that farm buildings and yard space offer tremendous scope for a range of uses, including equestrian, amenity, farm shop and resting areas as well as other business diversification opportunities (subject to obtaining the necessary consents).

Equestrian Facilities

The farm was granted consent for equestrian use in 1997 (R0020007A) and since then have run successful livery enterprise ('Aysdale Gate Livery Yard'). There are 16 livery tenants at present, all of which are occupied under short-term agreements.

The equestrian facilities included 22 boxes, feed and tack rooms, and 60 ft x 120 ft floodlit outdoor all-weather arena. The farm also has the benefit of direct access onto several popular public bridleways onto the North York Moors National Park moorland and forestry.

Farmland

The farmland extends in total to around 301.38 acres (121.96 ha) within a ring-fence. The land is classified as Grade 3 and 4 and comprises approximately 189.50 acres of productive grassland, 72.40 acres of rough grazing and 32.10 acres of coniferous woodland with the remaining land associated with the farm steading etc. The land is generally south facing, gently undulating, and lying between 160m to 200m above sea level.

The soils are predominantly described on LandIS maps as freely draining slightly acidic base-rich clay loam soils which have been well managed. Field enclosures are of a good size, are well fenced and all have access to natural water sources.

Fell Rights

The farm enjoys a right of turbary, a right to cut bracken and the right to graze 155 ewes with followers over Stanghow Moor.

Sporting Potential

Aysdale Gate Farm has a huge amount of sporting potential with a long-established pheasant and partridge shoot over the land that historically provided up to 12 days of challenging sport over several drives. We understand that the current shoot averages a total bag of 50-60 birds per day, fully driven.
