Situation and Amenities

Hurworth on Tees is a most desirable village with good local amenities, conveniently located for easy access to the market town of Darlington (approximately 4 miles away).

The village is close to the regional and national road network, Darlington's main line railway station and Teesside International Airport.

Accommodation

The main entrance to the property is via the side door, leading into the entrance hall where there is cloak storage.

The rear bedroom has a wall-mounted electric heater, a window overlooking the garden and a range of built-in wardrobes and storage. The second bedroom has an electric storage heater and a window overlooking the front garden.

The wetroom-style bathroom has a walk-in shower with assistance rails and barriers. There is a low-level w.c., pedestal hand wash basin, electric wall-mounted storage heater, medicine cabinet and a window to the front.

The living room has a large, wall-mounted electric storage heater and a gas fire with surround and marble hearth. At the rear, there is a small conservatory.

A sliding door from the living room opens up to the kitchen, which has a range of floor and wall-mounted units, a one and a half bowl stainless steel sink and draining unit, plumbing for a washing machine, space for a fridge freezer, a fitted oven and gas hob, extractor fan and a window to the front.

Externally

A tarmac drive for several vehicles leads up to a car port and onwards to the garage, which has double timber doors and a courtesy door to the rear the garage, which is currently split as part workshop and part hobby room.

The front garden is mainly laid to lawn with borders whilst, to the rear, there is a further area of lawn, patio and a greenhouse.

Tenure

The property is to be offered freehold with vacant possession on completion.
