BARNHAM ROAD

Barnham Windmill

Welcome to Empress Gardens, a striking development of four detached homes in Barnham, a short drive from the coast. The distinctive houses are well spaced around a private driveway with allocated covered parking. On the ground floor you'll find a large front-facing living room and a spacious designer kitchen/ dining room area to the rear, with energy efficient underfloor heating zones throughout. Upstairs there are three evenly sized bedrooms (one en-suite) and a stylish bathroom.

Whether you're looking for your next family home or downsizing into something easier to manage, Empress Gardens is sure to impress.

The local area has plenty to recommend it too. You'll find a choice of useful shops within walking distance, including a Tesco Express and Co-op Food store, along with a GP surgery, a pharmacy, several takeaways and Barnham's mainline train station. There are several primary schools within a two mile radius and a well-equipped children's Play Park in Farnhurst Road.

A vibrant village in an exceptional location

Barnham is an attractive village in the parish of Barnham and Eastergate with plenty of historic charm and a strong sense of community.

The local pub (The Murrell Arms) is located in an 18th century farmhouse while The Windmill Shopping Village (next to Barnham's landmark Grade II listed Windmill) is home to a selection of quirky shops and the Willow Tea Rooms. For everyday shopping, the Barnham Trading Post has fresh local produce, a Post Office counter and a popular café (The Watering Hole) open seven days a week. The Barnham Community Hall is a well-used social hub, with a schedule of weekly classes and a children's playground and multi-use games area in the vast green space alongside it.

When you're ready for a day out, the beautiful south coast is right on your doorstep. So kick back on a sandy beach, watch the world go by from a street-front café, enjoy locally caught fish at seaside restaurants or boost your step count as you explore the many riches along the coastline.

Arundel is a cultural hotspot with its choice of contemporary art galleries and independent shops, while Chichester's many attractions include groundbreaking theatre at the CFT, cinemas, museums and more. For more sporting pursuits, you're a 15 minute drive from Goodwood with its annual calendar of horseracing and motorsports.

Barnham is very well placed for transport links, with a network of local A-roads leading along the south coast and north over the South Downs. If you want to leave the car at home, Barnham mainline station offers direct routes to Bognor Regis (7 mins), Chichester (8 mins), Brighton (45 mins) and London Victoria (1hr 40mins).
