A beautifully presented Victorian terraced house situated in an elevated position in the heart of Old Arundel. The property has been finished to a high standard whilst benefiting from original features together with a stunning, mature garden and a garage.

Situated in a highly sought after location in Arundel, accessible to local shopping and leisure facilities. Arundel mainline station with its London and coastal service is within a mile, whilst good road links via the A27 and A29 are close by.

The ground floor comprises a bright sitting room featuring wooden flooring, a bay window and fireplace with gas fire. The second reception room is currently being used as a dining room and enjoys an original feature fireplace.

The stylish kitchen/breakfast room has been fitted with a range of modern units, Corian countertops and sink, integrated dishwasher, washer/dryer and oven and hob. There is a raised area with ample space for table and chairs and French doors opening out to the lovely garden.

On the first floor are two double bedrooms, both with feature fireplaces and the main bedroom also benefits from built-in wardrobes and a bay window. The large bathroom is fitted with a white suite comprising a refitted shower & hand wash basin & heated towel rail together with the WC and bath.

A particular feature of this property is the rear garden which has been beautifully planted with mature flower beds, and a paved patio outside the kitchen with Cathedral views and raised seating at the rear of the garden. There is a useful garage with power, with potential for conversion, which can be accessed from the end of the garden and Orchard Place.
