Cluan is a large detached Edwardian home, built approximately 100 years ago and subsequently extended.

The property enjoys a highly regarded location within two minute walking distance of Welwyn North station. The house has a beautiful frontage with a carriage driveway offering parking for multiple cars, as well as privacy thanks to the laurel hedging standing circa 8 feet tall.

The excellent accommodation includes 4 reception rooms, all of a very generous size and multiple rooms offer access into the garden, making it ideal for entertaining. The kitchen is fitted with underfloor heating and also has a connecting utility room.

The first floor comprises 5 double bedrooms, and 2 bathrooms with underfloor heating, as well as the large ensuite in the master bedroom. In the garden lies a recently constructed detached double garage with a small workshop, the garage has a self-contained studio over which could be utilised as a private office, it is currently used as an arts and crafts room. The secluded rear garden is approximately 90' in length and backs onto an open field.

Digswell is a small village situated approximately 2 miles to the north of Welwyn Garden City. There is a local shop/post office, JMI school and a popular pub/restaurant within walking distance of the property, with more extensive facilities in both Welwyn and Welwyn Garden City. For those wishing to commute, Welwyn North station offers a fast and frequent service into King's Cross, whilst Junction 6 of the A1(M) is about 1 mile.
