Codicote is a charming village which lies to the north of Welwyn Garden City, borders the River Mimram and is nestled within the glorious Hertfordshire countryside. Codicote has a thriving community and boasts a good selection of local shops that cater for everyday need; a post office and well stocked convenience store, quality family butcher, several public houses along with a pharmacy. Codicote C of E Primary School has the Ofsted rating of 'Outstanding'. The village boasts many historical buildings, some of which date back to the 1600's and is awash with period charm and character which adds to its appeal.

Welwyn Village lies at the other end of the Codicote Road. The High Street in Welwyn is home to a doctors surgery, dentists, Tesco Express and a good choice of village pubs and restaurants.
