DESCRIPTION

Ashwell is an elegant unlisted family house situated in the heart of the popular and historic town of Bovey Tracey. Built in the mid 1840s to an exquisite standard of finish, Ashwell was undoubtedly an important dwelling in the growing town. The property benefits from the foursquare room layout and design of the era so desirable today with character features, generous rooms and timely renovations melded together to make this a handsome and comfortable family home. There are beautiful views from all the main rooms. All windows are double-glazed and the four front rooms are dual aspect and flooded with light. This exceptional property provides substantial and versatile accommodation of over 4,200 sqft comprising 6-7 bedrooms, formal sitting, drawing and dining rooms, an open plan kitchen/breakfast room, garden room, utility, family bathroom, 2 ensuites, 2 cloakrooms and extensive cellars. A delightful veranda spans the front of the property with views across the front garden to the south Devon hills. To the rear of the property are ornate south-facing terraced gardens featuring an array of plants, mature shrubs, an orchard and a hobby vineyard. In all, the land amounts to nearly one acre.

ACCOMMODATION

A covered verandah with flagged walkway leads to a substantial front door with large window light above, opening into the entrance porch with a traditional Victorian inner door leading to a large hallway with stripped and stained original pine flooring. Doors open to the sitting room, the drawing room and the rear hallway, and an elegant carpeted staircase with period balustrades leads to the first and second floors. The dual aspect drawing room has original, working wooden window shutters, built-in bookcases and shelving, fireplace, and elegant coricing and architraves. The fireplace is fitted with a woodburner on a marble hearth and surrounded with a decorative wooden mantel. The sitting room has a tiled Victorian fireplace and bookshelves. The dining room and kitchen have engineered oak flooring and the dining room has a woodburner and French doors leading to the glazed garden room, which in turn, has French doors leading to the front garden and a door to the breakfast room. The kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with modern solid wood base and wall units with oak tops and integrated appliances including a gas hob, electric double oven and microwave. A door leads to the utility room which has a door to the rear garden. The rear hallway has a door to the cellar, the rear courtyard and a WC. Wooden stairs lead down to 3 cellars, 2 with cobbled flooring. Stairs from the hallway lead to a small half landing with a family bathroom, separate WC and boiler/drying room. Further stairs lead to the four principal double bedrooms, two with ensuite shower rooms, and a study or nursery room. There are a further two double bedrooms on the second floor. Most of the bedrooms have fitted cupboards.

GARDENS

From the pedestrian gate on East Street between two imposing granite pillars, a cobbled path leads to granite steps rising to a classically laid out front garden with pathways to each side of a terraced lawn and up to the imposing house. On both sides of the paths and granite steps, are beds with ornamental shrubs and an impressive array of mature trees including an Arbutus unedo or strawberry tree, Yew, Holm oak and Torbay palms. On the east side of Ashwell, a long entrance drive leads in from Trough Lane to the parking area near the house. Across the rear courtyard, granite steps lead up to several areas of terraced lawn and sitting areas, interspersed with flowerbeds, roses, shrubs and a large evergreen magnolia giving welcome shade. The whole rear garden is enclosed by tall Victorian stone walls, giving shelter, privacy (and no rabbits or deer!). Near the 2 sheds and 2 greenhouses is a soft fruit area. Further up is a productive organic vegetable plot, an orchard with apple, pear, plum, damson, greengage and apricot trees, and a mature hobby vineyard used to produce both red and white still wines. There are several wild areas with wild flowers and grasses attracting bees and butterflies, crickets, birds and hedgehogs. As well as a paved terrace in the vineyard, with views to Haytor, at the very top of the garden is a well-placed summerhouse from which to enjoy the breath taking views across the south Devon hills. In all, the gardens and grounds amount to 0.93 acres.
