SITUATION

Hookway is a tranquil hamlet, nestled just outside the market town of Crediton, and is surrounded by rolling countryside. The hamlet is renowned for scenic walks and its peaceful atmosphere. It's proximity to Crediton with its independent shops, garages, bank, post office, supermarket and train station means there is easy access to Exeter, and further travels, and creates the perfect balance of rural living, with easy access to amenities and transport links. Exeter lies four miles to the east, which has an impressive range of amenities befitting a centre of its importance including excellent shopping, dining, theatre and sporting and recreational pursuits. Exeter has mainline railway stations on the Paddington and Waterloo lines.

DESCRIPTION

Hookway House is a beautifully presented family home offering a wealth of characterful features, thoughtfully intertwined with a modern refurbishment. On the ground floor the layout includes a modern open-plan kitchen with utility/boot room, sitting room, lounge/dining room, study and WC. On the first floor are four bedrooms, two of which have ensuite shower rooms, and a family bathroom. Pathways from the large parking area lead to the beautifully presented grounds of approx 1.2 acres comprising of established gardens, a small section of woodland and an orchard. The former double garage, which could be reinstated if required, has been converted into a wonderful home office with services and a separate utility room.

ACCOMMODATION

The house is detached and originally would have been a stone and cob cottage but over time has grown into the house it is today with some modern additions. The layout provides an array of sociable spaces with a central open plan living/dining room with a wonderful wood burning stove. There's a separate sitting room with a Jetmaster open fire and French doors leading outside, plus a versatile study area with its own WC and further French doors leading to the driveway. The open plan kitchen has modern wall and floor mounted units offering plenty of storage, a Rayburn and a large utility/boot room, ideal for those with children and pets. On the first floor are four bedrooms, two of which have ensuite facilities and a family bathroom serves the remainder.

THE GROUNDS

The much loved gardens and grounds amount to approx. 1.2 acres and offer lawns with an array of established flower beds, feature ponds, wild flower beds and cleverly positioned woodland pathways leading to the raised vegetable gardens with fruit cages, a polytunnel and an orchard. The grounds back onto fields and there are various seating areas for alfresco meals or summer evening drinks. Higher up the garden there are views over the rooftop onto the surrounding countryside.

GARAGE/OFFICE

The former double garage, which could be reinstated if required, has been converted into a wonderful home office with services and a separate utility room.
