SITUATION

Woodbury House is situated in the centre of the village of Woodbury, one of East Devon's most sought-after villages, with an excellent range of local facilities including a 15th century parish church, village shop, school, garage and two pubs. Darts Farm and Greendale Farm shops are a short drive, providing an excellent range of quality food shopping. Woodbury Park Golf and Leisure Club is 2 miles, whilst it is in easy reach of the popular beaches of Budleigh Salterton and Exmouth. Woodbury Common with acres of unspoilt land is to the north of the village.

The cathedral city of Exeter is an easy commute to the west and offers a wide range of facilities, rail links on the Paddington and Waterloo lines, access to the M5 at Junction 30 and Exeter International Airport.

DESCRIPTION

Originally constructed in 1781 for the Attorney General of Jersey and on the market for the first time in many years, Woodbury House is a substantial detached Grade II Listed property in need of renovation throughout but offering a huge amount of potential for the next owners. Located in the heart of this highly popular village, a path leads across the garden to the front door which opens into an entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor. On either side are two spacious reception rooms with sash windows, to the rear, the corridor leads to a snug and beyond to a breakfast room and kitchen. From there, a back staircase leads to a bathroom with panel bath and separate shower cubicle.

On the first floor are two double bedrooms with a linked room that could, subject to the usual planning permissions be converted into an ensuite and there are a further 2 bedrooms on the second floor.

OUTSIDE

To the front is an area of garden which is mainly lawn with a path leading to the front door. On the left is a detached double garage with a driveway in front providing parking for a number of vehicles. Behind the garage is a area of courtyard garden and a door into a store.
