SITUATION

This beautifully positioned property enjoys a superb rural location whilst on the outskirts of the popular village of Tedburn St Mary, which is less than a mile away. The village provides several everyday amenities, including a local shop, a pub, a village hall, veterinary surgery and a primary school. An excellent GP surgery can be found in nearby Cheriton Bishop. Exeter city centre is just eight miles away, with its first class shopping and entertainment choices, and excellent choice of schooling. Schools in Exeter include the independent Exeter Cathedral School and St. Wilfrid's School, as well as the outstanding-rated Exeter School and Exeter College. Transport connections nearby include the A30, which offers easy access to Exeter, while Exeter's four mainline stations provide regular services towards London and the surrounding towns and cities. There is also good bus services to Exeter, Okehampton, Chagford and Bude.

DESCRIPTION

A picturesque entranceway off a quiet country lane leads up to the south-facing, thatched farmhouse occupying an elevated position with far reaching rural views across the surrounding countryside. This characterful but unlisted family home provides modern and versatile accommodation over two floors. On the ground floor is a kitchen/breakfast room, sitting room, dining room, study, pantry and utility room. On the first floor are three bedrooms, a family bathroom and an impressive principal bedroom with ensuite shower room. To the front and side of the house are well maintained gardens whilst to the rear are a range of agricultural buildings and store rooms. The property sits within its own land, which is primarily used for pasture, with a section of woodland. In all the land amounts to 38.29 acres.

ACCOMMODATION

A door from the entrance porch leads into a central hallway with a period plank and muntin screen and stairs rising to the first floor. To the right, steps lead down to a dining room with ornate ceiling beams and decorative fireplace with bread oven. On from the dining room is a study/office with a door leading back out to the courtyard. To the left of the central hallway is a double aspect sitting room with an impressive Inglenook fireplace with wood burner, ceiling beams and French doors leading to the paved terrace and garden. A door to the rear of the sitting room leads to a kitchen/breakfast room with wall and floor mounted kitchen units and an Aga. Off one end of the kitchen is a utility room whilst to the other is a well positioned boot room with sink, door out to the courtyard, and a separate WC. Stairs from the central hallway rise to a landing with built in bookcases. Off the landing are two double bedrooms and a comfortable single, a family bathroom with a shower and an impressive principal bedroom with an ensuite shower room.

GARDENS & ORCHARD

To the front and side of the farmhouse are well maintained gardens. French doors from the sitting room lead out onto a beautifully positioned paved terrace from where you enjoy the far reaching rural views across your land. On from the gardens is a productive orchard.
