SITUATION

Hoopern Street is superbly situated within Exeter's vibrant city centre, offering immediate access to a wide range of shops, restaurants, and amenities. The property is just a short walk from both Exeter Central and St David's train stations, making it ideal for commuters. Nearby Hoopern Valley provides a lovely green space for walking and enjoying nature.

DESCRIPTION

A well-positioned period home offering an exciting opportunity for modernisation and personalisation. Coming to the market for the first time in over four decades, the property retains many original features and enjoys generous proportions, with the original structure having been extended to the rear. Benefitting from a sunny south-west facing courtyard garden and offered with no onward chain, this is an ideal opportunity to secure a characterful home in the heart of the city centre.

ACCOMMODATION

The ground floor comprises an open-plan lounge and dining area, leading through to a spacious, well-appointed kitchen made larger by a rear extension. A bright and airy sunroom has been added to the side of the property, offering an extra living space with pleasant views over the garden. Upstairs are two comfortable double bedrooms and a family bathroom. The property offers excellent potential for further enhancement.

OUTSIDE

To the rear of the property is a south-west facing courtyard garden, perfect for enjoying afternoon sun and al fresco dining. On-street parking is available via a resident permit scheme.
