SITUATION

Oxton House is a striking Grade II Listed manor house, converted into elegant apartments in the 1980's. It stands in a most favoured private wooded valley circa 10 miles west of Exeter in the lee of the Haldon Hills. Oxton House dates back to Elizabethan times but was rebuilt in 1781 by Reverend, traveller and author John Swete who inherited a fortune from his godmother after he changed his name from John Tripe. Oxton is a popular hamlet due to the fact that it is on a 'no through' road and has a wooded approach with colourful rhododendrons and azaleas and the original estate white bridge over the river. It is approximately a 5 minute drive to the village of Kenton where there is a Post Office/stores, primary school, two village restaurants, pub and a community hall. 3 miles to the east is the prestigious Powderham Castle and Estate which offers local facilities such as a farm shop, restaurant and garden centre.

DESCRIPTION

The Orangery is a late addition to Oxton House, believed to be built in 1986, providing a unique wing to the impressive country estate. This exquisite home offers reverse level accommodation providing a light, airy and spacious rural retreat. The layout is arranged with 4 bedrooms, master ensuite, sitting room, dining room, kitchen and bathroom. Under the delightful balcony is a useful store room and to the south of the property is a charming patio area. The property also includes a double garage. Oxton House shares beautiful landscaped communal grounds with sweeping lawns, areas of woodland and a tennis court.

ACCOMMODATION

You enter the property via a balcony/terrace on the first floor either by steps or the bridge from the croquet lawn. The entrance hall has a side aspect window, over the stairs leading down to the ground floor, a generous storage cupboard and a guest cloakroom providing a WC and basin. The dining room has a dual aspect with French doors leading out onto the balcony and views over the lawns. Double doors open to a bright and spacious sitting room with two sash windows providing views over the communal grounds, a feature fireplace with an open grate and finished with timber flooring. The contemporary kitchen has a rear aspect with views over the inner courtyard, an array of matching base and wall units, integrated appliance which include an electric hob, double oven, dishwasher and space for a washing machine. Bedroom 1 has a front aspect with views over the patio and communal grounds beyond, fitted wardrobes and an ensuite arranged with a walk-in shower, WC and basin. Bedrooms 2 has a front aspect window with views over the patio area and fitted wardrobes. Bedroom 3 has a rear aspect with views over the neighbouring courtyard. Bedroom 4/study is a versatile room with French doors opening onto the south facing patio. This room is currently used as a study and occasional bedroom with fitted wardrobes and shelving. The bathroom provides a bath with shower mixer taps, WC and basin. An integral garden store is positioned beneath the balcony 5.21m x 1.83m (17'1" x 6").

THE GROUNDS

A charming south facing paved patio can be accessed from the communal grounds and the French doors on the ground floor. The exquisite gardens and grounds of Oxton, approximately 5 acres, create a beautiful parkland setting, with an abundance of mature plants, trees, rhododendrons and a delightful pond. Alongside this woodland setting is the use of a tennis court and croquet lawn. The double garages are situated in a block to the west of the building with an additional parking area, bin store and washing line area. In front of the garage is a communal water tap and electric point. The Orangery has the benefit of a double garage with 2 up & over doors with power and light.
