SITUATION

This substantial family home is situated on a 'no through lane' on the fringe of the sought-after Mid Devon village of Lapford. Lapford has a good range of local facilities including a garage/store, 16th Century pub, 12th Century church, primary school together with a railway station on the Tarka line (Barnstaple to Exeter). In addition, the bus route to Exeter and railway are just a short walk away. The large market towns of Crediton (10 miles) and Okehampton (12 miles) each have a more extensive range of day-to-day facilities including supermarkets, banks, secondary schooling and sports centres. The university and cathedral city of Exeter (17 miles) provides an extensive range of shops and facilities, as well as access to the M5 motorway and Exeter airport.

DESCRIPTION

Enjoying an elevated position with far-reaching views across the valley and towards Dartmoor, this substantial and characterful residence offers generous and flexible accommodation arranged over two floors. The property is approached via a welcoming front porch that opens into a central hallway, from which the principal ground floor rooms are accessed. The main sitting room is a real focal point of the home, featuring a handsome fireplace and an expansive southwest-facing bay window that frames the spectacular landscape beyond. Adjacent to this is a further reception room, also with a feature fireplace, offering a versatile space ideal for formal dining or additional living. One of the three double bedrooms on the ground floor is positioned beyond this room, enjoying its own bay window and exceptional views. Two further double bedrooms, a well-appointed family bathroom, a spacious kitchen/dining room, utility room and a shower room complete the ground floor. On the first floor are two additional double bedrooms, each benefiting from unique architectural lines created by intersecting roof angles and walls, giving a distinctive and charming character. Both rooms enjoy glorious south-westerly aspects. A second family bathroom serves this level, and there is easy access to a generous, boarded loft space offering excellent storage potential. The property also benefits from a walk-in cellar beneath much of the house, providing further useful storage or workshop space.

GARDENS

Multiple doors from the property open directly onto a beautifully positioned south-west facing terrace, commanding uninterrupted rural views across the valley. Steps lead down from the terrace to extensive lawned gardens, interspersed with mature trees and well-stocked borders, which sweep around the property on two sides. At the front of the property, a brick-paved driveway provides ample private parking and leads to an attached double garage, offering convenience and practicality in equal measure.

AGENTS NOTE

Of particular note is the included building plot with full planning permission granted for a four-bedroom dwelling. Designed to complement the existing house, the proposed new home features a striking gable end and extensive rear glazing to make the most of the same stunning views. This offers the opportunity to develop a separate residence or to simply enjoy the existing grounds as an expansive garden space. Details of the planning permission can be found on the Mid Devon planning portal - Ref no. 22/02204/FULL
