DESCRIPTION

Little Court is a beautifully presented and versatile family home, skilfully and sympathetically converted from a former coach house and understood to date back to 1808. Rich in architectural and historical features, it is accordingly Grade II Listed. The layout includes well-proportioned reception rooms and high ceilings, perfect for family life and entertaining. The gardens are beautifully landscaped, offering a high degree of privacy. Within the gardens, there is a detached home office/garden room, which serves as a valuable asset to the property.

ACCOMMODATION

The main entrance leads to the reception hall, which features an oak floor, stairs to the first floor with an under-stairs cupboard, and a window to the front elevation. There is a door opening to the rear hall, which has a part-glazed door to the garden and a door to the cloakroom.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of units providing ample work surfaces, cupboards, and drawers, along with wall-mounted cupboards. Appliances include a range-style cooker, built-in dishwasher, and American-style fridge freezer.

The sitting room is a substantial space with dual aspects to the front and rear, and a fireplace with a woodburning stove. A door from the sitting room opens to the dining room, which has a feature fireplace with adjacent alcoves incorporating display shelves and a cupboard. Another door leads to the study, which has an oak floor and windows to the front and side elevations. There is also a conservatory with a tiled floor and French doors opening to the garden.

On the first floor, the landing has an eaves storage cupboard and exposed timbers. The principal bedroom has fitted wardrobes, a window overlooking the front elevation, and a door to the "Jack & Jill" en-suite (shared with the third bedroom), which includes a double-width shower cubicle. Bedroom 2 has a fitted wardrobe, exposed ceiling timbers, and a window to the front. Bedroom 3 features an ornate fireplace, a window with open views, a built-in wardrobe and drawers, and a "Jack & Jill" en-suite shared with the master bedroom. The family bathroom is fitted with a white suite comprising a spa bath, separate corner shower, wash basin with cupboards underneath, WC, exposed timbers, and a window to the rear.
