The main entrance leads into a grand central hallway with an elegant turning staircase rising to the upper floors. There are tall sash windows throughout which flood the generously proportioned rooms with light with original features adding timeless grandeur to the spacious accommodation.

To the ground floor there is a stunning 35ft dual-aspect kitchen/dining room, perfect for entertaining, a range of white wall and base units complete with central island and breakfast bar, with integral hob and appliances. An elegant formal dining room and a characterful 'Winchester' room, currently used as a games room with a striking marble fireplace. The rear hallway leads to a utility room, WC, and dedicated gym.
