Gotton is a small hamlet lying at the foot of the Quantock range of hills which are designated as an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Nearby villages of Cheddon Fitzpaine and West Monkton are regarded as some of the most favoured in the Taunton Vale District and there are numerous foot and bridle paths within easy reach, giving easy access to this attractive countryside. Primary schooling is available at Cheddon Fitzpaine, Kingston St Mary and Monkton Heathfield. Secondary schooling is available at the latter.

Taunton, the County Town, lies some three miles away to the southeast where a wide range of shopping, recreational and scholastic facilities will be found including three noted independent schools, Bridgwater and Taunton College and Richard Huish Sixth Form College. Taunton enjoys excellent communication links with the rest of the UK with fast rail service to London Paddington and M5 interchange (Junction 25).

The property itself enjoys a somewhat elevated situation with far reaching views to the south over the Vale and to the Blackdown Hills in the distance.
