SITUATION

Off Vicarage Hill near the church, Laylok is well located being away from the general "hustle and bustle" of the village yet only about 600 yards walk to the inner harbour and centre of Mevagissey. The historic village of Mevagissey, which is still a working fishing village, is renowned for its picturesque myriad of narrow streets around the inner and outer harbours where there are numerous public houses, cafes, restaurants, gift shops and everyday shops.

The area is renowned for its attractive coastline and walks along the South West Coastal Footpath as well as beaches at Pentewan, Porthpean, Gorran Haven, Vault and Caerhayes.

The market town of St Austell is about five miles to the north and offers a more comprehensive range of shopping, schooling and social facilities and amenities, and there is a mainline railway station on the London Paddington line. The cathedral city of Truro, being the retail and commercial centre of Cornwall, is about 17 miles to the east; Newquay Airport is about 20 miles.

THE RESIDENCE

Nearing completion (July 2024), Laylok offers an individually designed, high quality and modern residence in a fine position with sylvan view to the Church. Laylok, which means "Lilac Tree", stands in a south-facing position overlooking its own landscaped gardens with numerous mature trees.

The accommodation layout is shown on the attached floor plans and emphasised by the artist's impression. There are private car parking spaces from which sweeping timber steps lead down to the ground floor level and front door into an open-plan Kitchen, Dining and Living Room of some size and scale, off which is a Utility Room with adjacent Cloakroom and a Bedroom with En Suite Shower Room and fitted wardrobe. NB The guide price of £655,000 does not include a fitted kitchen.

On the first floor is a small Landing with doors off to two Bedrooms – one with an En Suite - and a bathroom. From the first floor there is access to the roof open seating area over the ground floor with a walled balcony.
