SITUATION

Rich in history and architectural heritage, Truro has the distinction of being the only city in Cornwall.

Dominated by the splendid three spired cathedral standing at its heart, this ancient port is situated in a valley at the head of the beautiful river bearing its name and now forms the retailing, administrative and cultural centre of the county.

This apartment complex stands centrally within the City allowing excellent access to the bus and train stations located just a short walk from the apartment. The rail line links directly with London Paddington. Newquay airport a little further up the county offers a number of scheduled domestic and international flights departing daily.
