SITUATION

Hilltop Barn stands in a magnificent elevated rural position commanding fabulous far reaching views to both the north and south coastlines. Approached over a unmade track within easy access to an extensive network of scenic footpaths and trails, this delightful cottage is situated on the edge of the World Heritage Site which during the 18th and 19th Centuries, thanks to tin and copper mining was regarded as one of the richest districts in the old world.

Around 6 miles from both coasts and readily accessible to Truro, Falmouth and the A30, this central position remains sought after to this day. The north coast has great sandy surfing beaches (the nearest is Porthtowan) whilst the south has the sailing waters of the Carrick Roads at Falmouth or Mylor Yacht Harbour.

Nearby villages include Carharrack, St Day and Lanner, all of which provide a range of local facilities whilst the Cathedral City of Truro is a vibrant shopping centre with many national retailers represented. There are mainline railway stations at both Redruth and Truro connecting with London Paddington.

THE PROPERTY

Approached via a shared, unmade lane, Hilltop Barn is an appealing single-storey conversion of a traditional barn. The property features well-presented character accommodation, making it suitable as a primary residence or a secluded second home.

The property boasts impressive vaulted open-plan living areas, complete with exposed roof timbers, wooden flooring, and a brick fireplace with a slate hearth and open fireplace.

The main dwelling includes a modern high-gloss kitchen, an impressive sitting room, three double bedrooms, and a family bathroom.

ANCILLARY ACCOMMODATION

Additionally, the property includes two separate detached one-bedroom units suitable for extra accommodation. One building is constructed from traditional granite, while the other is a modern wooden chalet style, offering extensive countryside views.

OUTSIDE

The gardens of Hilltop Barn are a real feature of the property. Mainly laid to lawn the private garden enjoys far reaching views across the countryside, with several areas for entertaining including a delightful terraced BBQ area.

To the front of the property is a large gravelled area offering ample parking for the main house and additional accommodation.
