SITUATION

The ancient port and market town of Truro situated in a valley at the head of the beautiful river bearing its name is dominated by the splendid three spired Cathedral standing at its heart. Forming the administrative and cultural centre of Cornwall, the city offers a comprehensive range of retail and leisure amenities together with the county's leading educational facilities.

This home is situated in a highly regarded residential area close to the centre of Truro with a wide variety of restaurants, bistros and pubs together with a cinema and the Hall for Cornwall with a changing programme of live music and theatre, and is a five minute walk from Treliske Hospital.

Public transport links are excellent with Truro having a main line rail connection to London Paddington and flights departing to international and domestic destinations from Newquay airport close to the north coast.

DESCRIPTION

A beautifully presented large detached house which has been tastefully updated throughout by the current owners and offers contemporary, spacious reverse level accommodation with an open plan living area. MOTIVATED SELLER

This delightful family home has oak doors and flooring, a welcoming hallway with cloaks cupboard and a galleried open staircase descending to the lower floor. A door leads into the integral double garage with staircase to a useful large loft storage area which has power and lighting. The open plan family room incorporates a comprehensive kitchen with white Shaker style units including a dresser with glazed display cabinets and wine rack, a central island, walk-in pantry and integral appliances include a fridge, freezer, dishwasher and gas range double cooker, glass splash back and extractor hood.

A window, French doors and bi-fold doors from the dining and sitting areas lead out on to the glazed balcony boasting magnificent views across the countryside. The sitting area features a circular wood burning stove.

The master bedroom has windows to the front, built in mirror wardrobes and an en-suite shower room. A cloakroom completes the accommodation on this level.

On the ground floor there are four double bedrooms, a family bathroom, a shower room and door to the side giving access to the rear garden.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached over a driveway leading to the double garage. There is a gravelled hard standing area to the front allowing parking for five vehicles. A gate at the side of the house leads to the south facing rear garden via steps. The rear garden has been completely overhauled by the current owners and brought back to a fantastic family space with a level lawn, composite decked seating area, covered storage to the side of the property, outdoor power supply and spiral staircase linking the balcony to garden.
