SITUATION

The development stands in a well-connected position on the fringe of Newquay giving an easy route in and out of town along with the plethora of local amenities.

The nearby Gannel Estuary was historically used by shipping and is now home to a plethora of rare birdlife. Surrounding the estuary are numerous walks whilst for horse riders there are stables that use bridleways and take in parts of the foreshore. Also readily accessible is the scenic South West Coastal Path meandering southwards past The National Trust Crantock Beach to Holywell and then Penhale Sands. To the north lies the world renowned Fistral Bay leading onwards past Towan Head towards Watergate Bay.

Newquay is considered to be one of Cornwall's most popular holiday resorts, with an abundance of quality restaurants, independent shops and bars. The highly regarded Newquay Golf Course overlooks Fistral and is easily accessed. The landmark Headland Hotel is also a must, with an excellent restaurant and spa facilities. The Lewinnick Lodge is always a popular venue and Rick Stein and Paul Ainsworth are both based in nearby Padstow.
