The location is relatively unspoilt and surrounded by beautiful Cornish countryside and both the cottage and cabin enjoy far reaching views over nearby Argal Reservoir to miles of surrounding countryside with distant sea glimpses of Falmouth Bay on a sunny clear day.

DESCRIPTION - CLIFTURES COTTAGE

Cliftures Cottage is a classic, Victorian stone and granite built property under a traditional slate tiled roof. Its most handsome in appearance and has been sympathetically and sensitively updated in recent years to now provide a characterful and welcoming home retaining features such as beamed ceilings, granite flagstone flooring, some exposed stone walls, inglenook type fireplaces with a cast iron 'AGA Coalbrookdale' multi burner and replacement sash windows.

Upstairs you will find three bedrooms, all of which take advantage of the elevated countryside views and a modern white family sized bathroom incorporating a four piece suite.

To the front of the property there is ample parking for the cottage whilst to the rear, a useful utilitarian space laid to predominantly to gravel and being an ideal area to house bins, the external boiler, oil tank and LPG bottles.

Accommodation comprises of an entrance lobby, open plan living room with kitchen space incorporating fully integrated appliances, double bedroom and shower room/ wc. The neatly maintained gardens are undoubtedly a wonderful feature of the property with the main lawned gardens gently sloping away with a sunny southerly aspect bordered by flower and shrub beds which burst into colour with native fauna and flora through the summer months culminating in a mass of flowering plants including eucalyptus, hydrangeas, rhododendrons, camellias and azaleas. The garden is contained by traditional Cornish borders and a running stream continues along the eastern boundary.

Adjoining the gable end is a wonderful sun terrace ideal for entertaining and alfresco dining should you wish to enjoy sundown whilst taking in lovely views over the gardens, adjoining farmland and beyond to Argal Reservoir, Lamanva, surrounding countryside towards Falmouth Bay.
