SITUATION

Tregray House is well situated in the hamlet of Tregajorran, just outside and near the towns of Camborne and Redruth. Given the property's position, numerous amenities and facilities are readily available within a short distance, including supermarkets, leisure centre, schooling, railway stations, sporting clubs, retailing and junctions onto the A30(T).

THE HOUSE

The approach to Tregray House is via an impressive cut granite pillared and splayed entrance to a private tree-lined and canopied driveway which leads to multiple car parking areas to the front, side and rear of the house.

On the ground floor, a large covered Entrance Porch opens to an inviting Reception Hall with turning balustrade staircase off to the first floor and double doors to a spacious Living Room with wide granite and brick fireplace with open fire with copper canopy, double aspect and ceiling roses. Opposite is a Dining Room with hatch to Kitchen and also off the Hall is a Study.

The Kitchen includes a matching range of Shaker style base and eye level units with granite worktops to upstands and includes an under-mounted Belfast sink, mains gas fired double oven Aga set in "brick fireplace", tray recess, space and plumbing for dishwasher, integral refrigerator, larder cupboard and part glazed stable style door to outside.

Off the Kitchen is a Side Hall with fitted Storage Cupboard, part glazed door to courtyard, quarter pane doors to the front garden and doors off to a well-proportioned Family Room (currently used as a Cinema) with double aspect, corner cupboard, wood effect floor; Shower Room with fully tiled shower, suspended washbasin, wc, small chrome towel radiator; and, Utility Room with range of matching base level cupboards and drawers with wood effect work surfaces over, space and plumbing for washing machine and tumble dryer, fan assisted oven and separate oven and grill with four gas rings and extractor hood over, stainless steel single drainer sink unit with vegetable bowl and shelving.

On the first floor, with exposed timber floor boards and centred around a fine wrap-around Galleried Landing with double doors to Linen Cupboard, is a fine Family Bathroom with wood panelled bath with Victorian style mixer tap shower fitment, tiled shower, pedestal washbasin, wc and chrome wall mounted towel radiator as well as four good Double Bedrooms – the largest of which boasts a Dressing Room within which it is considered there is potential to create an En Suite facility if desired.

THE COURTYARD, BARN AND BAR BUILDING/MANCAVE

To the rear is an expansive level paved Courtyard with space for multiple vehicles.

Adjacent is a detached part single and two-storey Barn with, at ground floor level, two block Stables/Stores and a Store Room with over and approached via outside granite steps, a vaulted Loft Room with electric panel radiator, and detached timber framed slate and polycarbonate covered recreational Bar Building/Mancave with canvas doors, crazy paved floor and access points, bar, brick pizza oven and wood-burner.

THE GROUNDS - TOTAL ABOUT 2.04 ACRES

The grounds around Tregray House offer mature lawn areas with deep and professionally landscaped shrub and flower borders providing a real splash of seasonal colour. Beyond the front lawn are a mixture of mature and coniferous and deciduous trees and a wildlife pond. The front garden “wraps around” the side of the house on tiered levels with further deciduous and coniferous trees in the backdrop and granite paved steps connecting to the rear courtyard.

There are two grass paddocks with Tregray House. Firstly a paddock adjacent to the entrance drive and a second further paddock with gate from the courtyard to the rear of the Barn with Cornish hedge and post and rail borders, areas of grazing and a deciduous copse beyond. There is some Japanese knotweed in the lower paddock (accredited programme of eradication in place) which is away from the house towards the edge of the property.

THE SHEPHERD'S HUTS

Adjacent to the first paddock is an extensive level stone chipped car parking area with access to a pair of well-presented Shepherd's Huts for holiday letting – Bassett and Demelza. Both Huts offer fitted double beds with understorage, a projector and screen, a kitchen area with cupboards and drawer and Belfast sink, an Evershot oven and hotplate, folding wall table and shower room with electric showers, wc, chrome heated towel radiator and vanity washbasin. Outside are landscaped areas and both Huts benefit from allocated recreational areas and individually situated timber Hot tubs.

There is planning permission in place for 2 further Shepherd's Huts if desired.
