SITUATION

The Fort lies on the edge of the sought after coastal village of Cawsand, and is just a short stroll from the beach and the heart of the village. The twin villages of Kingsand and Cawsand are set on the Rame Peninsula and have an abundance of fascinating history. Originally fishing villages, where the old pilchard cellars can still be seen along the shoreline, the villagers were also notorious in the 1700's for smuggling contraband including fine wines and spirits from across the Channel. Richard Carew, one of Cornwall's most famous historians visited the villages and recorded in his 'Survey of Cornwall' (1769) his discovery of 'Kings Sand and Causam Bay'. The villages have a bustling community and are equipped with a variety of local shops, pubs and restaurants, together with a sailing club and other facilities. The Rame Peninsula is relatively little known, often known as Cornwall's forgotten corner. This is an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty with quiet secluded beaches, magnificent scenery and spectacular walks along the South West Coastal Path. The Mount Edgumbe Park, an 800 acre area of coastal woodland and open hillsides, is possibly one of the most beautiful and varied locations of the Westcountry, punctuated with its villages of Millbrook, Kingsand, Cawsand, St John and Craffthole.
