SITUATION

Situated to the southeast of Plymouth, Plymstock is one of the most desirable areas in the region. Its excellent location provides convenient access to Plymouth City Centre, just a short drive away, while also bordering the South Hams – a gateway to stunning rural landscapes and coastal destinations. Nearby are charming villages and beaches such as Wembury, Heybrook Bay, and Bovisand.

Plymstock offers a wide range of local amenities, with The Broadway serving as the main hub, home to a variety of shops and essential services. The area is highly regarded for its schools, all of which receive positive Ofsted ratings. These include several well-respected primary schools and two popular secondary schools: Plymstock School and Coombe Dean School. Excellent transport links, including reliable bus routes, connect Plymstock to Plymouth and further afield, reaching as far as Kingsbridge to the east.
