If you are a discerning buyer looking for a beautiful family home, look no further than this traditional three bedroom bay fronted semi detached dwelling.

Situated in an ever popular location this property has rooms of generous proportions; engineered Oak flooring extends from the welcoming entrance hall to the bright and airy open plan lounge dining room. The lounge has a double glazed bay window to front elevation and impressive Marble fireplace, an open chimney lends a warm and homely atmosphere which extends into the dining room where French doors and full height windows overlook the garden. The kitchen has a range of wall and base units with Shaker style doors. There is space for a Rangemaster style double oven and tall fridge freezer and built in dishwasher and extractor hood. Sleek handles and Granite worktops enhance the contemporary feel. A door leads to a utility room with space for a washing machine and dryer; there is also a WC. On the first floor, the landing gives access to all bedrooms where Oak floors extend throughout. The spacious principle bedroom offers a bay window to the front elevation and there are two further bedrooms, one of double size and the other a single. The bright family bathroom has a white four piece suite including a separate shower cubicle and two obscured double glazed windows to the rear elevation which floods the room with light.

The fabulous rear garden is large enough for even the most energetic of children; the space is predominantly laid to level lawn bounded by lovely shrub borders. A delightful patio offers the perfect spot to entertain friends and family whilst there is a shed at the bottom. The front is laid predominantly to paving lending off street parking for up to three vehicles and access to the garage.

Located in a popular location between the shopping areas of Emersons Green and Downend High Street; it is also conveniently positioned for well regarded schools and the Leap Valley conservation area.
