This exceptional, extended three-bedroom semi-detached residence presents a unique opportunity, boasting a prime position overlooking the verdant Frenchay Common. Boasting character and charm aplenty, a welcoming porch leads to a central hallway providing access to a study on the left and a dual-aspect dining room to the right. Both rooms enjoy picturesque views of the Common and the latter features an impressive exposed stone fireplace, creating a focal point of character.

A staircase leads to a lower ground floor level, comprising an inner hall that serves a generously proportioned lounge. This room benefits from patio doors that open onto the rear garden.

Adjacent is a traditionally styled kitchen/breakfast room, bathed in natural light, featuring a comprehensive range of wooden wall and base units. Integrated appliances include a double oven, hob, and extractor, with provision for a fridge/freezer and slimline dishwasher. A practical utility room completes this level, incorporating a WC, storage and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer.

The first floor accommodates three well-proportioned double bedrooms and a spacious family bathroom. The bathroom is appointed with a white five-piece suite, including a separate shower enclosure. Two Velux-style windows, set within the pitched ceiling, contribute to a bright and airy ambiance.

Externally, the rear garden features a paved patio, offering captivating views across the wooded Frome Valley. Steps descend to a secluded, private space, a tranquil retreat enveloped by an abundance of mature planting. To the front, a driveway and detached garage provide convenient off-street parking.
