TENURE:

We are verbally advised the property is freehold. The buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor or Surveyor.

The property is currently registered with Possessory Title (as opposed to Title Absolute). The reason is simply that the title deeds and documents were lost/mislaidd by the original owner of the property who subsequently passed away. The family of the deceased were able to produce statements of truth to this effect with supporting evidence (available upon request) and these were considered satisfactory by HM Land Registry thus leading to first registration of the property with Possessory Title. The Possessory Title is supported by a robust indemnity insurance policy which the buyer will take the benefit of post-completion (also available). Once 12 years has elapsed from the date of registration the owner of the property can apply to HM Land Registry to upgrade the title to Title Absolute (the highest class of title available). For the avoidance of doubt, the property was not registered based on an adverse possession claim, it was registered on the basis of the title deeds having been lost/mislaidd.

SERVICES:

The Agents have not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures, fittings or services and so cannot verify they are in working order or fit for their purpose. The buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor or Surveyor.

FIXTURES AND FITTINGS:

All items unless specifically referred to in these sales particulars are expressly excluded from the proposed sale. Carpets as fitted are included in the sale.

EXTRA SERVICES:

By law, the agent must tell the client if the agent or any connected person intends to earn any commission or any other fees from offering or referring other services to the client or buyer. If the agent or any connected person earns money from any of these services or referrals the agent or the connected person would keep this commission or fee. Part of the payment for these extra services will be paid to the agent as a result of the referral. Scriven & Co offers the following services and has the following referral arrangements in place:

Scriven & Co routinely refers sellers (and buyers) to certain firms of solicitors/conveyancers. It is the clients' or buyers' decision whether to choose to deal with any of the referral companies. Should the client or a buyer decide to use any of these companies the client or buyer should know that Scriven & Co receive a payment from these companies equating to a figure in the order of £100-£200 per referral. We are informed that the solicitors/conveyancers are happy to pay this referral fee to ourselves as it significantly reduces the marketing costs that they have to allocate to sourcing new business. The referral fee is NOT added to the conveyancing charges that would ordinarily be quoted.
