EXTERNALLY

The property is accessed off marine terrace via steps up to the front terrace of the property, with patio areas either side of the front door.

At the rear, there are two yard areas. The first leads to a tunnel walkway to the rear of the terrace.

The second leads to a slated courtyard with steps up to a stunning terraced garden including a range of mature shrubs, trees and plants. The top level of the garden has a timber summer house with power provided and a timber decking area. The views from this top level are arguably some of the best in Porthmadog, giving a panoramic view across the town, towards the harbour, estuary and mountains beyond.
