Walter's are delighted to present this spacious detached three-bedroom bungalow, featuring a principal bedroom with its own en-suite shower room. The property offers a generous lounge, well-appointed kitchen and an attractive sun/dining room that enjoys views over the private west-facing garden. Outside, you'll find a useful garden store and a timber-and-felt office complete with power and Wi-Fi-ideal for home working. Formerly a garage, the front section has been thoughtfully converted to create a practical store room with a utility room positioned behind. A car port to the front, along with additional off-road parking, completes this versatile and appealing home.
