Description

This fabulous Grade II Listed cottage offers impressive curb appeal from its stone and flint construction under a tiled roof. The property, believed to date back in excess of 200 years, exudes a timeless charm with its abundance of character. Inside, exposed beams grace the ceilings, while a wood-burning stove adds warmth and ambiance to the sitting room. Secondary glazed windows maintain the cottage's historic charm while providing modern comfort. The country-style kitchen is a focal point, boasting modern amenities within a rustic setting, perfect for both culinary endeavors and gatherings with loved ones.

Outside, the cottage extends its charm with a meticulously landscaped garden. A driveway and garage parking in the rear provide convenience and space for vehicles. The garden offers not only space for relaxation but also opportunities for self-sufficiency with a dedicated area for growing vegetables. A greenhouse, summerhouse and useful shed further enhance the property's appeal, offering space for nurturing plants and storing gardening tools, ensuring that this enchanting cottage is not just a home but a haven for those who appreciate the beauty of the outdoors.
