Description

This charming and quirky two-bedroom mid-terrace stone cottage is offered to the market with no onward chain, providing a unique opportunity to move unencumbered. This Grade II cottage is ideally situated just steps away from the high street of one of Dorset's smallest towns. Believed to date back to the 17th century, the cottage retains charming character features such as cottage-style windows with black fittings, deep window sills, a fireplace with a wood burner. Modern conveniences are also well catered for, with electric heating from a newly renewed electric boiler, powering traditional radiators, with secondary glazing at the front of the property. The roof was replaced approximately sixteen years ago.

The ground floor and first floor have just been fitted with limed oak, LVT flooring. The open-plan ground floor, offers a versatile living space, with flexible room usage on the first floor, to maximise the use of space the second bedroom door has been removed allowing more freedom of movement. There is also potential to develop the attic room, subject to the necessary permissions. The property has recently been rewired and has certificates to match.

Stalbridge offers an array of everyday amenities, including an award-winning supermarket, a family-run butcher, a post office, and a highly rated primary school. Additional community features include a library, a public house, a building supplier, and various takeaway shops.

A viewing is essential to appreciate the potential of making this cottage your home, to take in the views, and to explore the delightful and magical garden.
