44 BADGERS WAY

Description:

A deceptively spacious detached family home, perfectly suited to growing families and ideally positioned for access to excellent local schooling. Set on a generous plot, the property offers safe and enjoyable outdoor space for children, pets, and family gatherings. Presented in excellent decorative order and offered with no onward chain, this attractive late-1980s home has been lovingly cared for by the same family for many years, highlighting its practicality and welcoming feel.

The accommodation is thoughtfully arranged with family life in mind, providing four well-proportioned double bedrooms and flexible living space ideal for busy modern lifestyles. A spacious living room with patio doors onto a westerly facing conservatory makes for a great space for those large family gatherings, while formal dining can still be enjoyed in the Dining Room. A fitted kitchen with ample wall and base units provides an excellent area for culinary endeavours and creative cooking freedom. Well-maintained throughout, this home offers a wonderful opportunity for the next family to move straight in while gradually adding their own personal touches.

Located in a highly desirable area, the property is within easy walking distance of the town centre, everyday amenities, and well-regarded schools for all ages—making school runs and daily routines refreshingly straightforward. Whether you are looking for a long-term family home with room to grow, space to play, and a strong sense of community, this is a home that truly needs to be experienced in person to be fully appreciated.
