Property Description

The property comprises a timber door with lead stained glass inserts opening into a welcoming entrance hall laid with what are believed to be the original 'quarry tiles' flowing into multiple rooms on the ground floor, a bright and spacious lounge has a stunning, exposed brick inglenook fireplace with a timber mantle housing a multi fuel burning stove and has dual mock sash windows, a second reception room is accessible off the entrance hall, benefitting from a storage cupboard and has plenty of room for a large dining table & chairs. A roomy kitchen is fitted with wall and floor mounted units while benefiting from an integrated electric oven and a four-burner electric hob, allows ample room for a washing appliance & a free standing fridge freezer. A timber stable door opening from the kitchen gives access to the rear garden.

The first floor accommodation comprises a substantial primary bedroom with a fitted wardrobe and a cast iron fireplace, while offering plenty of room for additional freestanding wardrobes or chest of draws, a second double bedroom looks onto the rear aspect of the property with ample room for wardrobes, a versatile loft room is accessible off the landing area via a staircase and is currently being utilised as an additional bedroom that enjoys views of Gele parc and both Coed Y Gopa Woodlands & Tower Hill. Completing the first-floor accommodation is a partially tiled four-piece family bathroom with an enclosed shower cubicle.

The property further benefits from gas central heating via a recently installed combi boiler (circa 2020), double glazing throughout, and a low maintenance, enclosed rear courtyard garden lid with brick paving and a handy outbuilding for storage.

Over the current period of ownership, the property has been lovingly maintained and tastefully decorated throughout while maintaining the true character of the property and is ready for immediate occupancy.

Abergel

Abergel is a small market town, situated on the North Wales Coast between the holiday resorts of Colwyn Bay and Rhyl, in the Conwy County Borough. Its northern suburb of Pensarn lies on the Irish Sea coast and is known for its beach, where it is claimed by some that a ghost ship has been sighted. Abergel and Pensarn railway station serves both resorts.

Abergel lies just off the A55 and is well known for Gwrych Castle. The town is surrounded by woodland covered hillsides, which contain caves where you can find the rare Lesser Horseshoe Bat. The highest hill is Moelfre Isaf (1040 ft) to the south of the town. There are also outstanding views from Cefn-yr-Ogof, Tower Hill and Castell Cawr (known locally as Tan-y-Gopa). Castell Cawr is an Iron age hillfort, one of several in the area.

Abergel (including Pensarn) has a population of around 10,000 and is part of the Abergel/Rhyl/Prestatyn urban area with a population of 64,000. Approximately 29% of Abergel has a significant knowledge of Welsh. The town also has satellite villages such as Saint George, Betws yn Rhos, Rhyd-y-foel, Belgrano, Llanddulas and Llanfair Talhaiarn.
