Property Description

Upon arrival, the property exudes charm with its attractive curb appeal, featuring a brick-paved driveway and a low-maintenance stone-chipped area lined with a brick path, showcasing mature shrubbery with ample space for potted plants.

Step through the UPVC double glazed door into the welcoming entrance vestibule, where a timber glazed door leads into the expansive L-shaped hallway, providing access to the loft and offering ample fitted storage options.

The lounge offers generous space for a three-piece suite, centred around an elegant timber mantle framing an electric fire set on a stone effect hearth. An inset bay window bathes the room in natural light, accentuated by a decorative ceiling rose, adding a touch of sophistication.

Across the hall, the former garage has been thoughtfully converted into a large utility room/office space, complete with plumbing and power for washing and drying appliances, additional sink, kitchen cupboards, and room for a freestanding fridge freezer.

The fitted kitchen boasts ample space, featuring a blend of wall and base-mounted timber units complemented by a tiled splashback. A range of integrated appliances, including a fridge, electric oven/microwave oven, dishwasher, and a four-ring induction hob, make cooking a breeze.

Accessible via double doors from the kitchen, the spacious garden conservatory measuring a whopping 21' offers picturesque views of the rear garden, creating the perfect spot for relaxation.

The primary bedroom is a tranquil retreat, adorned with fitted wardrobes on either side of the bed and above the headboard. There's plenty of space for additional freestanding bedroom furniture, and the garden conservatory is conveniently accessible from this room.

The second bedroom is a well-proportioned double room, also featuring fitted wardrobes around the bedspace and offering a delightful view of the rear garden.

The family bathroom boasts a fully tiled design, complete with a shower cubicle with a clear glass screen, a spacious hand wash basin with storage options beneath, a low-level WC, and a chrome towel warmer.

The sizable loft, accessible via a pull-down ladder, is mostly boarded and presents potential for conversion, subject to the correct building regulations.

The garden enjoys a sunny south-westerly aspect, providing ample sunshine throughout the day and well into the evening, ideal for hosting family barbecues. While designed for low maintenance, green-fingered enthusiasts will find joy in the variety of plants and mature shrubbery bordering the tiered section of the garden. An additional patio area beside the conservatory serves as a sun trap, and a pathway running alongside the property offers easy access for bins. Additionally, two water butts cater to any environmentally conscious individuals.

Abergele

Abergele is a small market town, situated on the North Wales Coast between the holiday resorts of Colwyn Bay and Rhyl, in the Conwy County Borough. Its northern suburb of Pensarn lies on the Irish Sea coast and is known for its beach, where it is claimed by some that a ghost ship has been sighted. Abergele and Pensarn railway station serves both resorts.

Abergele lies just off the A55 and is well known for Gwrych Castle. The town is surrounded by woodland covered hillsides, which contain caves where you can find the rare Lesser Horseshoe Bat. The highest hill is Moelfre Isaf (1040 ft) to the south of the town. There are also outstanding views from Cefn-yr-Ogof, Tower Hill and Castell Cawr (known locally as Tan-y-Gopa). Castell Cawr is an Iron age hillfort, one of several in the area.

Abergele (including Pensarn) has a population of around 10,000 and is part of the Abergele/Rhyl/Prestatyn urban area with a population of 64,000. Approximately 29% of Abergele has a significant knowledge of Welsh. The town also has satellite villages such as Saint George, Betws yn Rhos, Rhyd-y-foel, Belgrano, Llanddulas and Llanfair Talhaiarn. (Source: Wikipedia Oct'19)
