Property Description

Brick-paved off-road parking leads to an iron gate, and a timber glazed door with stained glass inserts welcomes you into the entrance porch, currently serving as a utility space.

Step inside, and you'll be greeted by a breath-taking gallery landing/hallway, adorned with a large floor-to-ceiling window that frames the stunning rural and hilltop views.

The timber flooring extends into the spacious and well-lit lounge, which also enjoys panoramic vistas. Here, a multi-fuel burning stove, set atop a solid stone hearth and framed by a timber mantle, adds a touch of warmth and character. Sliding doors open onto an L-shaped balcony, offering the perfect spot to soak in the evening sun.

The large open kitchen diner is ideal for entertaining guests, featuring a charming "cottage kitchen" design with a mix of wall and base mounted timber units complemented by a tiled splashback. Integrated appliances include an electric cooker, dishwasher, and a five-ring gas hob supplied by LPG.

On this floor, you'll find the primary bedroom, boasting hardwood flooring and timber mirrored fitted wardrobes. It also includes a modernised ensuite shower room with partial tiling, featuring a hand wash basin, WC, chrome heated towel rail, and a walk-in shower cubicle.

Two additional bedrooms on this level offer ample space for double beds and freestanding furniture, while the family bathroom, with its fully tiled design, features a bath with a rainfall showerhead, WC, bidet, and hand wash basin.

Descending the stairs, you'll find a ground floor entrance hall leading to a large reception room with tiled flooring and a log burning stove. An adjoining storage area offers potential for conversion into a cinema room or another reception space.

An additional entrance to the lower level opens to a picturesque

Italian styled Loggia, now more usable thanks to double glazed windows.

The lower level accommodates two bedrooms, one with an ensuite shower room, both offering comfortable living spaces.

Outside, the stunning gardens, meticulously maintained by the current owners, feature a large pond with water lilies and a variety of flowers and trees. Stone pathways wind through the gardens, leading to a gazebo and a decked terrace enjoys the sun through most of the day, perfect for outdoor dining and entertaining.

A timber gate opens onto a brick-paved driveway providing off-road parking for up to four vehicles and a single garage with power offers additional storage options. This property benefits from central heating via an oil-fired boiler and double glazing.

A standout feature of this property is its utterly idyllic location close to the quaint and peaceful village of Rhyd-Y-Foel, situated between two Sites of Special Scientific Interest, Gwrych Castle Wood and Pen-y-Corddyn-Mawr (iron age hillfort). Nestled in an elevated position on a quiet private lane, it offers the perfect setting for those seeking their own slice of semi-rural living.

The sought-after village of Rhyd-y-foel is surrounded by picturesque walking routes, with the beach and coastal path just a few minutes away by car or bicycle. Easy access to transport links and the A55 ensures convenient commuting along the North Wales Coast, while the nearby town of Abergele, a mere 10-minute drive away, boasts a wealth of local shops, gastro pubs, cafes, and other amenities.
