Property Description

A UPVC double-glazed door opens into a welcoming entrance porch with tiled flooring, leading to an entrance hall through a second UPVC glazed door.

The lounge, accessible from the hall, features a prominent chimney breast with a timber mantle and an electric fire set on a stone hearth. A stylish bay window allows ample natural light to flood the room, while decorative coving adds a touch of elegance.

From the lounge, a second internal hallway provides access to the partially boarded and well-insulated loft.

The kitchen offers ample countertop space and is fitted with a mix of wall and base-mounted timber units, complemented by stylish splashbacks and worktops. Integrated appliances include an electric oven and hob, with plumbing for a washing machine and space for a freestanding fridge freezer. Electric points are conveniently located in some of the cupboards, allowing for the installation of an integrated under-counter fridge if desired.

A UPVC glazed side porch opens from the kitchen, offering a versatile space that can accommodate a drying appliance or serve as an additional seating area.

The primary bedroom is spacious, easily accommodating a double bed and bedroom furniture. A useful linen cupboard houses the hot water tank, and the vendor informs us that the freestanding wardrobes can remain in the property.

The second bedroom is also a well-proportioned double room with views of the rear garden and ample space for additional bedroom furniture.

The bathroom features a fully two-toned tiled design, fitted with a bath and an above-bath electric power shower, a hand wash basin, and a WC.

At the front of the property, there is ample off-road parking for multiple vehicles and a paved patio area with an adjacent low-maintenance stone-chipped section. The driveway leads to a single garage, which benefits from power.

The rear of the property boasts a well-manicured, low-maintenance lawn bordered with stone chippings and secure timber fencing. A decked terrace leads to a large summer house/workshop, which can be used for storage or as an outdoor seating area.

Moor Park is a charming cul-de-sac, conveniently located within a few minutes' walk of Gwrych Medical Centre, where you can catch the No.12 bus to both Rhyl and Llandudno. Abergele town centre is about a ten-minute walk away, offering a local supermarket, a range of cafes, shops, a butcher, and a florist. Keen walkers will enjoy exploring Coed Y Gopa woodlands, while the award-winning Pensarn Beach is just a five-minute walk away, perfect for those who prefer a sea view.

Abergele

Abergele is a small market town, situated on the North Wales Coast between the holiday resorts of Colwyn Bay and Rhyl, in the Conwy County Borough. Its northern suburb of Pensarn lies on the Irish Sea coast and is known for its beach, where it is claimed by some that a ghost ship has been sighted. Abergele and Pensarn railway station serves both resorts.

Abergele lies just off the A55 and is well known for Gwrych Castle. The town is surrounded by woodland covered hillsides, which contain caves where you can find the rare Lesser Horseshoe Bat. The highest hill is Moelfre Isaf (1040 ft) to the south of the town. There are also outstanding views from Cefn-yr-Ogof, Tower Hill and Castell Cawr (known locally as Tan-y-Gopa). Castell Cawr is an Iron age hillfort, one of several in the area.

Abergele (including Pensarn) has a population of around 10,000 and is part of the Abergele/Rhyl/Prestatyn urban area with a population of 64,000. Approximately 29% of Abergele has a significant knowledge of Welsh. The town also has satellite villages such as Saint George, Betws yn Rhos, Rhyd-y-foel, Belgrano, Llanddulas and Llanfair Talhaiarn.
