Hesketh House Bridge Street, Abergele, LL22 7HA

£500,000

Brief description

Welcome to this versatile three-storey commercial property, set in the bustling market town of Abergele. This spacious building offers an exceptional opportunity with planning permission already in place for transformation into a vibrant restaurant space on the ground floor, complete with additional seating, kitchen, and upper-floor conversion into hotel accommodation.

Situated on the main street, this property provides easy access for patrons and excellent visibility for business, while the dedicated private parking area at the rear ensures ample space for customers and staff alike. Previously used as a coffee shop, internet café, language school, and office space, the layout is flexible and ready to adapt to various business needs or a new vision.

The recently approved plans allow for a rear extension to replace the current flat-roofed structure with a stylish new flat-roofed area to enhance the restaurant's seating capacity and kitchen space. The upper floors are permitted to be converted into comfortable, well-appointed hotel rooms, capitalising on Abergele's demand for accommodations close to the coast and local attractions. This would transform the property into an inviting destination for dining and lodging, attracting locals and visitors alike.

Key features include:

- Prime town centre location on a busy street with excellent visibility and access
- Rear extension with approved planning to enhance restaurant seating and kitchen facilities
- Private parking at the rear, making access convenient for patrons and staff

This remarkable property combines historic charm with modern potential, making it ideal for those seeking to establish a business in a high-traffic area with ample scope for customisation. Don't miss the chance to shape this commercial space into Abergele's next premier dining and accommodation spot.

Abergele

Abergele is a small market town, situated on the North Wales Coast between the holiday resorts of Colwyn Bay and Rhyl, in the Conwy County Borough. Its northern suburb of Pensarn lies on the Irish Sea coast and is known for its beach, where it is claimed by some that a ghost ship has been sighted. Abergele and Pensarn railway station serves both resorts.

Abergele lies just off the A55 and is well known for Gwrych Castle. The town is surrounded by woodland covered hillsides, which contain caves where you can find the rare Lesser Horseshoe Bat. The highest hill is Moelfre Isaf (1040 ft) to the south of the town. There are also outstanding views from Cefn-yr-Ogof, Tower Hill and Castell Cawr (known locally as Tan-y-Gopa). Castell Cawr is an Iron age hillfort, one of several in the area.

Abergele (including Pensarn) has a population of around 10,000 and is part of the Abergele/Rhyl/Prestatyn urban area with a population of 64,000. Approximately 29% of Abergele has a significant knowledge of Welsh. The town also has satellite villages such as Saint George, Betws yn Rhos, Rhyd-y-foel, Belgrano, Llanddulas and Llanfair Talhaiarn.
