Property Description
As you approach, paved steps bordered by a brick wall lead to the front door, which opens into a welcoming vestibule porch. From here, a glazed timber door guides you into a large T-shaped hallway. This inviting space offers access to a part-tiled WC, a practical utility room, a spacious linen cupboard, and the loft.

The well-proportioned lounge boasts coved ceilings and a striking brick fireplace, complete with a gas flame fire resting on a tiled hearth. A large bay window overlooks the side of the property, flooding the room with natural light and offering views of the nearby stream. At the far end of the lounge, double doors open into a spacious conservatory serving as an additional reception area.

The dining room offers ample space for a dining table and chairs, or it could easily be transformed into a third bedroom by adding a partition wall where the dining area adjoins the lounge.

The kitchen is fitted with a selection of hardwood timber wall and base units, complemented by a tiled splashback. Integrated appliances include a double electric oven with grill, an electric hob, an integrated fridge, and a stainless-steel sink, making it a practical and functional space for cooking.

The utility room, featuring 1970s-style cabinets, provides additional storage solutions and has plumbing and power for both a washing machine and dryer, adding convenience to your daily routine.

Both double bedrooms are generously sized and come with fitted wardrobes and ensuite shower rooms. One of the ensembles has been recently modernised with a contemporary design, featuring a clear glass shower cubicle, hand wash basin, and WC. The second ensuite, while more traditional in style, offers a shower cubicle, bath, WC, and hand wash basin.

The garden wraps around the property, offering a multi-aspect layout that captures sunlight throughout the day and into the evening. From the conservatory, double doors open onto a spacious block-paved patio area, perfect for alfresco dining. A sloping paved pathway leads down towards the stream, bordered by soil areas that could easily be transformed into lush lawns or vibrant flower beds. A quaint timber bridge crosses the stream, with the boundary of the property finishing, as outlined in the land registry title deeds, beyond the bridge.

Beneath the property is a large garage/store. While accessible via a single garage door, the space opens up to accommodate the size of a double garage, offering plenty of room for a workshop or additional storage. Equipped with power and an electric-controlled up-and-over door, it provides ample space for all your needs.

This property is located in a quiet residential cul-de-sac within the sought-after semi-rural village of Betws-Yn-Rhos. The village itself offers a convenience store, an 18-hole golf course, a local pub, and an infant/primary school. The nearby town of Abergele is just a 10-minute drive away, providing access to a wider range of amenities, while the A55 Expressway is only 4.7 miles away, making commuting along the North Wales coast convenient and straightforward.

This bungalow offers the perfect blend of rural tranquillity and modern living, with beautiful surroundings and a welcoming community.
